

Caring Today, Planning for Tomorrow

07 May 2021

Duty of Candour & Being Open consultation

There will be a series of online information sessions for Trust staff in order to promote the Duty of Candour & Being Open consultation, and to provide an opportunity for feedback from Health and Social Care staff within all Trusts. Dates have already been set and NIAS staff are invited to participate on Friday 14th May.

We appreciate that availability of staff, who work a variety of shift patterns, can be an issue, therefore, on each day there will be three separate sessions.

- 12.00pm,
- 5.00pm and
- 8.00pm.

Each session should last 25-30 minutes.

We would encourage you to take this opportunity to learn more about the proposed Duty of Candour and to provide your valued opinion on the policy options.

Staff can register for the sessions by clicking on this link and following a few simple steps: <https://consultations.nidirect.gov.uk/hsc-public-health-agency/a50ec9a1>

The Chair of the Duty of Candour Workstream, Quintin Oliver, has also recorded a short promotional video which is available to view at the following link - <https://vimeo.com/535953394/2f6721e329>

Thank you

To consistently show compassion,
professionalism
and respect to the patients we care for

Caring Today, Planning for Tomorrow

To consistently
show compassion,
professionalism
and respect to the patients we care for